August 2

Georgi and the Rough Week (Blues Influence and a Rock Flair)

With a blues influence and a rock flair, Georgi and the Rough Week have their own style and energy to be reckoned with. You'll find yourself in awe, tapping your feet or dancing & out of your seat! Gerogi Sneckner-Longboya's vocals are sensual and guttural, like those of Janis Joplin and Tina Turner. Her stage presence is magnetic and she loves to take her wireless microphone out to mix things up with the audience. Lead guitar Roland Longboya brings unbelievable over the top licks, tone & nuance. A tone fanatic, Roland makes sure you feel every note. Along with the background vocals Mike Tringali on bass brings an infectious tone, thump and drive! Add to the mix the perfect timing, rhythm and sounds of the beat man, Dan Lewis on drums.

A favorite in the Bay Area since 1996, Georgi and the Rough Week combine their original songs which have become popular on their own and classic cover tunes, they have their own style that can only be described as "HOT". Don't miss Georgi and the Rough Week.
